THE COMING CAMPAIGN IN RICHMOND.

The Clay Ward Workingmen and the Union Club Met, and Madison Ward Boys Elected Officers.

At New Market last evening there was held a meeting of workingmen of this city "to decide upon the best mode of securing representation in the coming session of the Legislature," There were about seventy-five men present. among them being Mesers, W. H. Mullen, J. J. Creamer, Walter E. Orange, Mike Murphy John Graves, Charles Hill, R. S. Farrell and Robert F. Morris. It was 8:45 o'clock before the meeeting was called to order by Mr. D. J. Reardon. He stated that the nomination for chairman was in order and Mr. John W-diraves was unanimously elected chairman; Mr. James G. Creamer was elected secretary. The chairman then stated the object, and Mr. Mullen moved that the meeting recom-mend one name to be used as the working-names be used.

Mr. Mulien said that he thought that the workingmen had a just right to a fair representation on the ticket, and he was heartily in favor of nominating two men to represent the interest of labor in the coming session of the Legislature. That, though the laboring men have a right to a just representation, they should also concede the right of other classes, and that workingmen on the primary day should vote proudly for their two representatives and also to as cheerfully vote for two representatives have been of the city.

WORKINGMEN'S RIGHTS. WORKINGMEN'S RIGHTS.

Mr. John Gaines spoke about the workingman's right of representation, and seated himself by the drowning cries of "question." He was succeeded by Colonel Morris, who discussed issues of national importance, such as the Silver bill. Interstate Commerce and other questions not the issues of this cam-

When I heard that question discussed I was surprised, for though only a workingman I can't understand why such an issue should be discussed when the city of Richmond has he whole matter in charge and not the Leg-pature of Virginia. The last issue spoken of was that of "commissions" for the city of

THEIR PLATFORM.

A platform for our representatives is not sected. The time has arrived when it is nown what issues the workingmen will vote n, and you know too well what issues ald be discussed and passed in the Legislature for our benefit. I am not an aspirant for legislative honors, but I am a voter of this city, and I will never vote for the man who perpetrated upon the workingmen of this State the iniquitous Ragiand bill.

I want to see every official in this city who gets over $1,000 a year elected by the people. It's been said that Democratic principles dictate a government by the people, but if Richmond's officials are from the people's suffrages I have never discovered it.

Look at the Democracy of the primary. Heretofore the cost for entering primary. has ranged from about $10 to $15. The City entral Democratic Committee has informed sthat this primary will cost $700, thus making the workingman use $70 to be allowed to evoted for. How many of us are able to put be voted for. THE SECOND CANDIDATE.

Mr. John Epps was nominated as the second candidate, and Mr. Orange spoke in culogistic terms of the former. He said that two men ought to be nominated who would go into the campaign and tear used the veil and show to the perpit that the issues that are now being discussed are not issues at all. Our cardinates should tell of the real issues of the the canvass, and tell that the evenings of the old soldiers' lives shall be surrounded with ch peace and comfort as possible, and that we will meet the candidates again and discuss the color line that we will vote to give to honest white men the places how occupied by the negro in the commission house, in the wholesale store, and the carrages of the rich. Mr. Fryer was quantimously selected.

He said that he presumed that only white Democratic voters would vote in the primary and if such would be the tase, how were the men who are not always voters of the Democratic ticket, to use their hand sunfrage in the primary?

The Union Club.

The Union Ctub.

The Union Democratic Club held a rousing meeting at Powell's Hall last evening.

The audience was large, and President Cullingworth introduced the speakers of the evening in an extremely felicitous manner.

A number of candidates for the House of Delegates were present and entertained the assemblage with interesting addresses.

Messrs. Byrne, Booth, Steel and Fauntlerov spoke upon the issues which have been the theme of oratory at all the recent club gatherains.

After the candidates had spoken President Cullingworth introduced Hon. George D. Wise who addressed the club for half an hour. "I have but little to say," he begin, "about the canva's which is being made in this city. All the candidates are good Demothis city. All the candidates are good Demo-crats I believe, and we can make no mistake in the election of any of them."

The speaker then briefly reviewed the recent debate between Hon, William McKinley and Governor Campbell in Ohio. He arraigned the Republican party for the violation of its pledges to the workingmen of the country and for its failure to give to them the promised increase of wages and years of prosperity. He also ridiculed the sham which Mr. Blaine presented under the pretext of reciprocity with South America at text of reciprocity with South America, at the same time advocating the placing of a veritable Chinese wall between us and the best customers we have for our products in England. He spoke of the idea of there being a scarcity of a circulating medium, and presented figures to show that there was to-day a larger amount of money per capita in circulation than ever before, but that the seeming contraction finds its origin in the enormous centralization of currency in a few hands as the result of monopoly and trusts.

Mr. Wise's remarks were frequently interspersed with applause, and his audience was charmed by the masteriv way in which he handled the various subjects he discussed. At the close of his speech the club ad-journed to meet again next Monday evening, when a band will be present to welcome all of the legislative candidates.

Madison Ward Club.

The Madison Ward Democratic Club held an enthusiastic meeting last evening in the chancery court-room at the City Hall. Landerkin, second vice-president, Charles W. Allen, third vice-president, James T. Ferriter, fourth vice-president, R. A. Hughes, secretary; Portieux Robertson, treasurer; J. A DESPERATE CHARACTER.

The Sheriff of Fluvanna in Richmond With a Captured Prisoner.

Sheriff Robert S. Campbell, of Fluvanna, was in the city Sunday night with a colored prisoner named Willie Washington, a despe-rate character who was captured at Shaw boro, N. C., last week. Washington broke into a store near Fork Union in Flu-Washington vanna county last spring and stole a lot of shoes, boots and other things, and at the same time was wanted for stealing a cow. He fled from Fluvanna to Albemarle county and was pursued by a party of amateur de-tectives, seven in number, who, besides be ing loaded down with fire-arms, carried a lot of whisky and a dog. The prisoner was captured and the return journey commenced. At night the party camped in an unused With the negro in the middle and

The negro complained of his boots hurting him and his request to re-move them was granted. Later in the night the seven detectives and the dog woke up and found the centre of the ring at which the log's nose and the seven pistols were point-ng without a tenant. Washington, with that astuteness that characterized his namesake, had outgeneraled the enemy. He was after-wards followed to Newport News, but escaped

North Carolina. He confessed to Sheriff Campbell all the misdeeds with which he was charged and a good many more besides. He also told him that since he fled from Virginia every strange white man he saw he thought was coming after him, and now since he had told everything he was happy for the first time. Sheriff Campbell kept his prisoner at the jail while here, and left for Fluvanna with him yester-day morning on the Alleghany train.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.

The Meeting Was Postponed on Account of the Inclement Weather.

A meeting of the King's Daughters was called for yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the ladies' parlor of the Young Men's Christian Association. Mrs. Kane presided.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather the attendance was rather small, and it was decided to postpone the transaction of some important business until the next meeting, postant business until the next meeting, which will be held on next Monday at 4.50 P. M. at the same place.

It is to be hoped that the members will turn out in full force to the meeting and especially desirable that all the ladies be present who are interested in the work of the Sheitering Arms. This institution was founded by Miss Rebekah Peterkin, who much to the regret of her numerous friends was called away so soon from a life of usefulness. Her memory can in no more appropriate manner be honored by those whom that venerable lady left behind than by keeping up her works in the same s in t. It is, therefore, expected that the lad es who are connected with the institution will do their utmost to keep up its prosperous will do their utmost to keep up its prosperous condition.

To sell the best, very best, Wraps at fair prices is one aim of our Cloak Room. To show a Perfect Stock is another. Now we are trying to make it a point in our advertisements to do no bragging, but it is almost an impossibility to impress on you the immense amount of brains, energy and pluck necessary to gather together our present assortment of Wraps, which is a fair representation of the styles of New York, Berlin and Paris, the three centres of Cloak Fashions of the world, without bragging.

Not alone the Wraps bought in the regular way are here to claim your attention, but the imported samples of a manufacturer, the Patterns he bought in Europe, from which his own designs were worked. Of these patterns, Capes, Coats, Jackets and Long Wraps, there are in most instances only one of a kind, of some only two, and in no instance more than three alike. There are some Beaded, some Braided, some Embroidered, some Studded, some Fur Trimmed, and one of the most important items is that they were bought at prices which were surely a loss to the manufacturer who bought them in Europe. for they are surely of better make than the usual run of garments, while the prices run from $12.50

Our great Dress Goods Stock is made richer this week both by items to feast the eye and the pocket with some Elegant. Stylish Angora Wool novelties and 40-inch wide Bedford Cords at 59c. a yard. There are some wonderfully interesting items among the 50c. Dress Goods also.
